

Henk Hendrix

Sr. Specialist Energy & Sustainability, SABIC

Tel: +31 (0)6 12892138

Email : henk.hendrix@sabic.com

Having completed Chemical Engineering study and MBA, and more than 30 years of Petrochemical experience of which the last 10 years related to Sustainability, Energy Efficiency, Renewables and Innovations. Leading many Energy Management developments and leading the team for setting up the SABIC Energy Policy.

Leading programs for feasibility studies for Renewables, Innovative technologies and Integrating Cogen units for large-scale applications. In his current role as a Sr. Specialist Energy & Sustainability with the largest listed company in the Middle East.

Henk leads the development of Manufacturing Sustainability procedures and technical and cultural improvements to grow to a Sustainability leading company.

He initiated several tools for educating and executing self-assessments for manufacturing departments and project teams. He is leading the opportunity assessment program for all new MEGA projects to identify and implement best in class technologies for these projects.

He is the SABIC lead for developing of renewable projects and SME for Cogen units. Henk is consultant for many Sustainability and Energy efficiency related matters throughout SABIC global and several international workshops.